FIVE BOY BURGLARS ONETELLS OF RAIDS

Confession Clears Up Several Williamsburg Robberies-

Four Under 16 Years.

A thirteen-year-old boy-the youngest of five caught after they had roken into the home of Simon Levinn at No. 1 Johnson avenue, Willamsburg, early to-day—has confessed to the police of the Bedford avenue station that he and his companions have robbed a number of homes in Brooklyn. He is Samuel Lombardino of No. 31 Boerum street. Only one of the five is old enough to be charged of the five is old enough to be charged with burgiary, Stanislaus Kalsky, eighteen, of No. 126 Stagg street.

Lombardino and the three others are charged with juvenile delinquency. They are Lorenso Geradi, fifteen, of No. 130 Boerum street; Joseph Lazutri, fourteen, of No. 372 Leonard street, and Abraham Leonard, fifteen, of No. 141 Hopkins street—all Williamsburg addresses.

Levinson, whose home they entered this morning, is a cigar manufacturer, his place of business being on the first floor and his home on the second floor of the three-story Johnson avenue building.

He and his wife were awakened by the intruders, who had gathered up about $160 worth of clothing and other property. Mrs. Levinson schamed and the boys fled, Levinson in pursuit.

screamed and the boys fied, Levinson in pursuit.

Policemen Mooney and Custer joined in the chase, leaping into an automobile to pursue the boys, who stayed in a group. Two shots fired in the air brought the fugitives to a stand in the blocks from the Levinson home. Levinson said the youngstera evidently had climbed a fire-sscape to the roof of the building in which he lives, came down through a scuttle and broken open a door which leads from the hall into his sitting room. In Kalsky's pockets soveral tickets were found, indicating that he had nawned articles of silverware yesterday.
